Dear Sirs,

We refer to Official Letter 61/2024/CVM/SEP/GEA-1 ("Official Letter"), dated March 15, 2024, in which you requested clarifications from Braskem S.A. ("Braskem" or "Company"), as transcribed below:

"Dear Sir Director,

1. We refer to the news published on this date in the newspaper Folha de São Paulo, Market section, under the title: "Government is now considering appointing Mantega to Braskem's board", which contains the following statements:

After the failure of the attempt to install former minister Guido Mantega as president or on the board of directors of Vale, the government is now considering appointing him to the board of directors of Braskem, according to collaborators of President Lula (PT).

Mantega was on Wednesday afternoon (13) at the Planalto Palace to discuss his future with the Chief of Staff, Rui Costa

2. In view of the above, we determine that you clarify whether the news is true, and, if so, explain the reasons why you understood that it is not a relevant fact, as well as comment on other information considered important on the topic."

In this regard, Braskem ("Braskem" or "Company") informs that it is not aware of such information, the reason why it has questioned Petrobras, which informed the following:

"As determined by CVM Resolution No. 44/21 and in compliance with Official Letter No. 61/2024/CVM/SEP/GEA-1, Petrobras clarifies that, to date, it is not aware of the matter mentioned in the news in question."
